

Ms. Yvette M. Moses

February 14, 1963 - August 8, 2017

A TIME TO BE BORN

Yvette Moses was born on a very significant day, in February 1963 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to the late parents of Sandra Moses and Wilbert Slocum. This romantic day is celebrated around the world by giving commemorative gifts to loved ones. You know it, Valentine's Day, February 14th.

Yvette was our special gift on this day. She was our heart, a box of sweet chocolate candy and a bouquet of flowers all wrap-up in a beautiful blanket of love.

A TIME TO REMEMBER

Oh, what a beautiful memory that you've left behind

Yvette, better known to everyone as Binky, was also given a valuable gift from her Mom. How to become a Super Mom.

Yvette took motherhood very serious and created a family bond with a firm foundation. This bond was further secured by her significant other, her husband, Robert Mann. He was another gift given to us on February 14th. Yes, they were born on the same day. Together they nourished a beautiful family. This explains when you see one, you see the other.

Yvette's truly enjoyment her family and friends. She would cook big meals to feed everyone. It was her way of sharing a taste of goodness. Her and Robert would travel near and far to visit family members from Milwaukee to East Chicago & Gary, Indiana, all the way to Omaha, Nebraska.

Binky, being an only child, always embraced her first cousins. They frequently had private celebrations around Thanksgiving and Christmas Holidays. It was a feast to outdo any Thanksgiving Dinner.
